

New Hampshire Homeschool Portfolio Checklist

Work down this list once a term and the annual review stops being an event.

Student: _____

School year: _____

☐ A dated log of educational activities

What you covered and which subject it served, written as you go. Reconstructing a year of this in the week before a review is the single most common portfolio scramble.

☐ A reading list, by title

Every book and material named. This is the piece families most often rebuild from memory, and the piece a reviewer can check fastest.

☐ Samples of your student's work

Writings, worksheets, workbooks, and creative work. A few pieces per subject spread across the year reads as evidence; a stack from one good week does not.

What New Hampshire requires

New Hampshire no longer requires a portfolio. The reading-log and work-sample rule lived in RSA 193-A:6, repealed by 2026 N.H. Laws ch. 297 effective July 1, 2026, and RSA 193-A:4, V(c) now bars the state from treating the absence of records as a failure to educate. Keeping work samples is still worth doing for your own records and for a future transcript — it just isn't a legal duty.
